1. About ARCA ►

In this Privacy Policy, references to "we" or "us" or "ARCA" are to the Asbestos Removal Contractors Association Limited. We are the leading trade association in the field of asbestos management services.

Information on how the Asbestos Labour Feedback App (ALFA) (the "App") uses your personal data can be found at <https://www.alfa.reviews/alfa-privacy-policy>. This information also includes how ALFA uses your personal data and your rights as a data subject.

Data will be collected and recorded through the App (including any updates, new versions or new releases of the App downloaded by you) and provided to us. We are a 'controller' of this data and responsible for complying with data protection laws.

If you have any questions about how we collect, store or use your personal data, you may contact us using the details provided in the 'Help and Support' section.

2. Our processing of your personal data ►

We are dedicated to promoting safety and professionalism throughout the licensed asbestos removal industry. One of the ways we will do this is by giving a voice (through the App) to licensed asbestos removal contractors to rate and review the performance of labour agency operatives ("Operatives") to help drive up standards of work.

We will process personal data collected from the App on the legal ground of pursuing our legitimate interests to:

- promote safety and professionalism throughout the licensed asbestos removal industry;
- promote compliance with asbestos removal related legislation and regulation;
- review and monitor the standard of work, qualifications and certifications of individual Operatives;
- review and monitor trends across the Operative workforce in relation to standards of safety and quality of work;
- ensure secure and efficient operation of the App;

Only registered users from within the asbestos removal industry will be able to access the App and we will collect personal data about these registered users. The personal data that we collect will depend upon whether you are an Operative, a labour agency ("Agency") user

(which includes its directors, officers, employees and agents) or a licensed asbestos removal contractor (“LARC”) user (which includes its directors, officers, employees and agents). Please click on the relevant section that applies to you.

2.1 Labour Agency Operative

This section details what personal data we collect about you and use in relation to your role as an Operative.

What personal data will we collect? ►

- Photograph
- Name
- Unique identifying number that we allocate to you (NINo)
- Email Address
- Home Postcode
- Information about your current certifications and their expiry dates including your CSCS card, ori-nasal respirator test and full face respirator tests

This will typically be for no longer than 18 months after your account has been deactivated. However, this period is subject to some exceptions where we have a legal requirement or compelling business reason to keep your personal data for longer.

We may anonymise your profile so that it can no longer be associated with you. We reserve the right to retain and use such anonymised data for any legitimate business purpose without further notice to you.

For further information regarding how long your personal data will be kept, please our contact details in see the 'Help and Support' section.

7. Cookie Policy ►

A cookie is a small piece of data sent from a website and stored in the user's web browser while the user is browsing. Cookies were designed to be a reliable mechanism for websites to remember information or to record the user's browsing activity (clicking particular buttons, recording which pages were visited in the past).

Like a lot of websites today, this website uses cookies as part of the Member Login process, that is, if the 'remember me' checkbox is ticked a cookie will be saved on to the Members device to store their login details.

When you access the Site, some information in the form of a "cookie" or similar file may be automatically downloaded to your computer. This helps us to enhance the on-line experience of visitors to the Site. If you do not want cookies sent to or stored on your system, most Internet browsers will allow you to delete or block cookies from your computer hard drive, prevent them from being stored or signal a warning before a cookie is stored. You should refer to your browser instructions or help screen to learn more about these functions. However, please note that if you use your browser settings to delete or block cookies you may not be able to access all or parts of the Site. Unless you have adjusted your browser setting so that it will refuse cookies, our system will issue cookies as soon as you visit the Site.

The Site uses cookies although personally identifiable information is not stored. The following cookies are used:

- ASPSESSION*: is a non-persistent cookie which identifies a specific user's session and expires when the user leaves the site.
- CookieControl: is a persistent cookie which is used to remember the user's preferences in regards to cookies.

We may use navigational data for system administration and to report aggregate information to our advertisers or other stakeholders. This is statistical data about our users' browsing actions and patterns, and does not identify any individual. This means that your session may be tracked, but you will not be identified. We may use cookies to track the pages that you visit on the Site and to ensure that you do not see the same information repeatedly. We may also collect non-personal information, such as number of Site visits and tracking patterns of page viewing, to monitor the performance of the Site and make improvements to it.

8. Your rights ►

In certain circumstances, you have the right to seek the erasure or correction of your personal data, to object to particular aspects of how your data is processed, and otherwise to seek the restriction of the processing of your personal data. You also have the right to request the transfer of your personal data to another party in a commonly used format.

You have a separate right of access to your personal data processed by us. You may be asked for information to confirm your identity and/or to assist us to locate the data you are seeking as part of our response to your request.

If you have any questions about these rights or would like to exercise any of these rights, please contact us using the details set out in the 'Help and Support' section.

Finally, you have the right to raise any concerns about how your personal data is being processed with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) by going to the ICO's website:

<https://ico.org.uk/concerns/> or contacting the ICO on 0303 123 1113 or casework@ico.org.uk.

9. How we protect your information ►

We endeavour to maintain physical, technical and procedural safeguards that are appropriate to the sensitivity of the personal data collected and processed via the App. These safeguards are designed to prevent your personal data from loss and unauthorised access, collection, use, disclosure, copying, modification, disposal or destruction. Unfortunately, we cannot guarantee complete security.

The security of your personal data is important to us, please advise us immediately of any incident involving the loss of or unauthorised access to or disclosure of personal data that is in our custody or control.

10. Contact us ►

You may contact us if you have any questions about how we collect, store or use your personal data by contacting us using the facility in the App.

11. Updates to this Privacy Policy ►

We review this Privacy Policy regularly. Occasionally we may need to make changes or additions to this policy that may affect how we handle your data. We will post new versions of this on our app. We may also notify you of changes to this Privacy Policy by email.

This Privacy Policy was last updated on: [July 2019]
